

Un Castello
all'orizzonte 2023

11th edition

Art, Tourism, Culture and Good Food
in the Heart of Umbria

Vita Nova, as engraved on the new bells of the Santissima Annunziata church, sums up the desire to give Castello di Postignano a future. The ancient agricultural and artisan village in the Valnerina has been recovered, after a complex restoration, as a place of art and hospitality, while we continue our work to improve sustainability and energy saving with solutions agreed with the IVL (Swedish Environmental Research Institute).

Even our fine cuisine has found its new expression in the passionate work of multi-starred chef Vincenzo Guarino, who expresses his creativity between tradition and imagination, from pizzas cooked in the old wood-fired oven under a large lime tree, to the Tavola Rossa, a gourmet restaurant and ideal place for haute cuisine and conviviality. It is here that the chef shares his experience and knowledge in cooking courses of various levels, among the training activities for which Castello di Postignano is accredited by the Umbria Regional Administration.

Now in its 11th edition, our Festival Un Castello all'Orizzonte alternates, as ever, music, literature and art. A new highlight, among the permanent exhibitions to be visited at the Borgo, is the one featuring six photographs of Castello di Postignano taken by Maestro Mimmo Jodice in 2014, which are now on display in a dedicated room.

Two events will have history as their theme: the presentation of Orlando Figes' book History of Russia. Myth and Power from Vladimir the Great to Vladimir Putin, a text of great depth for the understanding of the current tragic events, with the presence of the author and Giovanni Savino; and the meeting with Jacopo Fo and Marco Marchetti who will talk, with an original approach, about the unknown Middle Ages.

In addition, Bruno Maticena will give a lecture on 'Coins in Italy from the Middle Ages to the present day'.

As for music, there are many dates, including Dal bel canto al jazz and Jazz in classico, classical concerts such as The 5-string cello by Bach and his sons, with Marc Vanscheeuwijck on 5-string cello and Riccardo Lorenzetti on harpsichord; the Duo Souvenir with Senese on mandolin and Del Prete on guitar, and finally the recitals of Maestros Gianluca Luisi, Sergio Lattes and Alessandro Bistarelli on piano.

Finally, presentations of works such as the volume Sine Fine edited by Pietro Del Re and with photos by Charlotte Lartilleux, with the authors and Letizia Muratori; Mangiare come Dio comanda by Elisabetta Moro and Marino Niola, with the authors in dialogue with Serena Sileoni and Elena Sinibaldi, and The House on the Nile by Denise Pardo, with the author, Mariolina Sattanino and Pietro Del Re.
